

Malviya National Institute of Technology celebrated its 79th Independence Day with great enthusiasm

DATE: 15th August 2025

The 79th Independence Day was celebrated in MNIT Jaipur with great enthusiasm and pride. This remarkable day is observed to pay tribute to all those freedom fighters who contributed and sacrificed for the independence of India.

On this auspicious occasion, in remembrance of our freedom fighters, the faculty, staff, students, and guests gathered in large numbers at the Prabha Bhawan premises. The event began with the hoisting of the National Flag by our Honourable Director, Prof. N. P. Padhy, followed by the singing of the National Anthem. Prof. Padhy then delivered a motivating speech, sharing his valuable thoughts and highlighting the institute's recent accomplishments, new initiatives, and training programs that are helping MNIT reach new milestones. He also spoke about the growing involvement of students, enhanced placement opportunities, and innovation-driven start-ups under the MNIT Incubation Centre.

As a prelude to the celebration, a vibrant Rangoli Competition was organized a day in advance, where students showcased their creativity through intricate and colourful designs reflecting themes of patriotism and cultural heritage. The winners were felicitated during the Independence Day event, adding to the festive spirit.

The atmosphere was filled with patriotic fervour and excitement. The event featured inspiring speeches, patriotic songs, a captivating group dance performance, Indian classical dance presentations, and a patriotic street play.

To further mark the occasion, a Plantation Drive was organized on campus, where faculty, staff, and students actively participated in planting saplings. This initiative not only promoted environmental sustainability but also served as a green tribute to the sacrifices of our freedom fighters.

The distribution of sweets added joy to the occasion, and the function concluded with a collective and heartfelt rendition of "Vande Mataram", filling the air with pride and emotion, and leaving smiles on everyone's faces.

The day ended with a successful celebration of independence, expressing deep respect and gratitude to all those who played a role in securing the nation's freedom.
