

Stage play, Lokmanya Bal Gangadhar Tilak on 25th January, 2024 MNIT, Jaipur

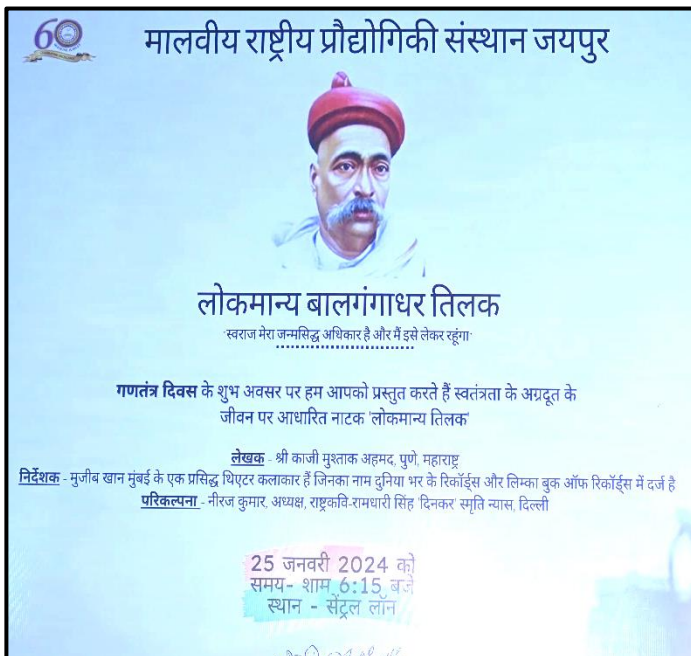

The Malaviya National Institute of Technology Jaipur, organized an event on the occasion of 75th Republic Day of India wherein a skit inspired by the life of “Lokmanya Bal Gangadhar Tilak” was staged on the evening of 25th January 2024 at Central Lawn area within the institution premises in collaboration with the Rashtrakavi Ramdhari Singh 'Dinkar' Smriti Nyas, New Delhi.

The event commenced with the welcome and lamp lighting ceremony in the presence of Prof. N.P. Padhy, Director MNIT Jaipur, Dr. Mahesh Kumar Jat, Dean Student Welfare, Associate Dean Cultural, Dr. Prerna Jain and Chief Guest, Mr. Vineet Chauhan. Thereafter, the distinguished guests were felicitated by the Director of the institute.

The play was staged by the renowned theatre artists under the supervision of Shri Mujeeb Khan. It was conceptualized by Shri Niraj Kumar, President, Rastra Kavi Ramdhari Singh ‘Dinkar’ memorial trust.

The play successfully enlightened the audience about the life struggles of Lokmanya Bal Gangadhar Tilak and honored his contribution to the Indian Freedom Movement. The play ended with the major life lesson, "Do not abandon your self-respect, even if your head is severed; do not bow to others, even if the sky splits."

The event concluded with the memento presentation ceremony and a Vote of Thanks which was delivered by Dr. Prerna Jain.
